What is the FAFSA® form?

Use the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) form to apply for grants, scholarships, work-study funds, and loans for college or graduate school.
Contributors to the FAFSA® Form

Who is a contributor on the 2024–25 FAFSA® form?

Parents or Spouses
Your answers to the FAFSA® form will determine if any contributors need to be identified. These contributors will complete their own sections of the form and are asked to provide personal and financial information, but will not become financially responsible for the student’s education.

How To Invite
Contributors will need to log in with their own FSA ID to provide their information. To invite a contributor to a FAFSA form, you’ll need to provide their name, date of birth, Social Security number, and email address.

Information or Documents You May Need

Previous  Continue
Every contributor must provide consent and approval for you to be eligible for federal student aid. With your consent and approval, we can obtain your federal tax information automatically from the IRS to help you complete the FAFSA® form. You can save the form and return to it later if you need more time.
After completing the FAFSA® form, you will receive a confirmation with preliminary information related to your eligibility for federal student aid.

The schools you selected will receive your FAFSA® eligibility information. In late January, you will receive an email to let you know when this information has been sent to your selected schools.

You will receive an email when your official Student Aid Index (SAI) is available. To review your SAI, log into StudentAid.gov with your username and password (FSA ID). Your official SAI is a number used to determine federal aid eligibility.

Schools will use your official SAI to create your financial aid offer that explains the types and amounts of aid they are offering you. You should begin to receive your personalized aid information from the schools you’ve been accepted to several weeks after they receive your FAFSA® Information.

Provide Consent or Be Ineligible for Federal Student Aid

Summary

Your consent is needed to retrieve and disclose federal tax information (FTI). With your consent, we can obtain tax return information automatically from the IRS to help you complete the FAFSA form. If you don’t provide consent, you will not be eligible for federal student aid, including grants and loans. You must provide consent even if you didn’t file a U.S. federal tax return or any tax return at all.

- Get your 2022 tax return information for the 2024-26 FAFSA form.
- FTI is used to determine your eligibility for federal student aid.
- Tax return information is required to complete the FAFSA form.

Under penalty of law, I certify that I am the individual associated with the FSA ID login credentials used to access the FAFSA form to provide the necessary approval and consent for the disclosure and use of my federal tax information (FTI) from the U.S. Department of the Treasury. By accepting below, I approve and consent to:

- The U.S. Department of Education to disclose my Social Security number, last name, and date of birth to the U.S. Department of the Treasury in order to obtain my FTI only for the purpose of determining the eligibility for, and the amount of, federal student aid and for myself or others for which I participated and shared my FTI by a program authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended.
- The use of my FTI by the U.S. Department of Education officials and contractors (as defined in 35 U.S.C. § 603(B)(3)(B)), only for the purpose of determining the eligibility for, and amount of, federal student aid for myself or others for which I participated and shared my FTI by a program authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended.
- The U.S. Department of Education to redisclose any FTI received from the U.S. Department of the Treasury pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 603(B)(3)(B) (VA), which includes:
  - Institutions of higher education participating in the federal student aid programs authorized under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended
  - State higher education agencies; and
  - Scholarship organizations designated prior to Dec. 19, 2019, by the Secretary of Education.
- The use of my FTI for the application, award, and administration of student aid awarded by the federal government, institutions of higher education, state higher education agencies, and designated scholarship organizations.
- The redisclosure of my FTI to any future 2024-26 FAFSA forms for which I elect to participate (e.g., if I elect to participate in my child’s FAFSA form or to complete my own FAFSA form after participating in another FAFSA form). My FTI will be redisclosed to those additional applications upon my affirmative to participate. I understand that I may decline an invitation to participate which will prevent the transfer of my FTI to that FAFSA form.

By approving and consenting, I further understand:

- My approval and consent are a condition of my eligibility or of others for which I have participated and shared my FTI for federal student aid, even if I did not file a U.S. federal tax return.
- FTI received from the U.S. Department of Treasury will supersede any manually entered financial or income information on the FAFSA form.

The U.S. Department of Education may request updated tax information from the U.S. Department of Treasury once consent is provided. If FTI has changed (e.g., amended tax return filed with revised FTI), then eligibility for and amounts of federal, state, and institutional financial aid may change.

If I do not approve and consent to the disclosure of my FTI, the U.S. Department of Education will be unable to calculate my eligibility for federal student aid or the eligibility of others who have requested that I share my FTI on their FAFSA form.

I am permitted to revoke my approval and consent for the disclosure and use of my FTI as outlined herein, at reasonable cost. However, by revoking such approval and consent, neither I nor other applicants for which I participated and shared my FTI will be eligible for future federal student aid and/or other federal financial aid programs that use FTI to make determinations of eligibility for federal aid awarded by an institution of higher education, state higher education agency, or other designated scholarship organization.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who should provide consent?

If I married and didn’t file a joint tax return with my current spouse, does my spouse have to provide consent for you to access their tax information?

What happens after I provide consent?

What happens if I revoke consent?

What happens if I decline consent?

Select "Approve" to consent to using your tax information to determine your eligibility for federal student aid. If you select "Decline," you will not be eligible for federal student aid.

Summary
This page confirms you understand the terms and conditions of the FAFSA form, and that you have filled it out accurately to the best of your ability.

The FAFSA form is a legal document you will electronically sign with your FSA ID. Because this is associated with your personal information, do not share it with anyone.

By signing this application electronically using your FSA ID (username and password) and/or any other credential or by signing a signature page and mailing it to us, YOU, THE STUDENT, certify that you

- will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education,
- are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan, and
- will not receive a Federal Pell Grant from more than one school for the same period of time.
By signing this application electronically using your username and password, and/or any other credential or by signing a signature page and mailing it to us, you certify that all of the information you provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked to provide

- information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form, and

- U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file.

You also certify that you understand that the secretary of education has the authority to verify information reported on your application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies.

If you sign this application or any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a username and password, and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by the username and password, and/or any other credential and have not disclosed that username and password, and/or any other credential to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

Contributors to the FAFSA® Form

Parents or Spouses

Your answers on the FAFSA form will determine if any contributors need to be identified. These contributors will complete their own sections of the form and are asked to provide personal and financial information, but will not become financially responsible for your education.

How to Invite

Contributors will need to log in with their own FSA ID to provide their information. To invite a contributor to your FAFSA form, you'll need to provide their name, date of birth, Social Security number, and email address.

Information or Documents You May Need

You might need the following information or documents as you fill out the FAFSA form:

- Tax returns
- Records of child support received
- Current balances of cash, savings, and checking accounts
- Net worth of investments, businesses, and farms
Every contributor must provide consent for you to be eligible for federal student aid. With your consent, we can obtain your federal tax information automatically from the IRS to help you complete the FAFSA® form. You can save the form and return to it later if you need more time.
After submitting the FAFSA® Form, you'll need to check the status of your form and make corrections, if required.

- Your form will be processed in 1–3 days.
- You’ll receive a FAFSA Submission Summary. It will include the Student Aid Index (SAI), a number used to determine federal student aid eligibility.
- Schools will use your SAI to create your financial aid offer that explains the types and amounts of aid they are offering you. Most schools will wait to send you an aid offer only after they accept you for admission.

Provide Consent or the Student Will Be Ineligible for Federal Student Aid

Summary
Your consent is needed to review and disclose federal tax information (FTI). Without your consent, we cannot obtain tax return information automatically from the IRS to help you complete your version of the student’s FAFSA® Form. If you do not provide consent, the student will not be eligible for federal student aid, including grants and loans. You must provide consent even if you didn’t file a U.S. Federal tax return or any tax return at all.

- Get your 2022 tax return information for the 2024–25 FAFSA form.
- Tax return information is required to complete the FAFSA form.
- FTI is used to determine the student’s eligibility for federal student aid.

Under penalty of law, I certify that I am the individual associated with the FSA ID used in credentials used to access the FAFSA® Form to provide the necessary approval and consent for the disclosure and use of my federal tax information (FTI) from the U.S. Department of the Treasury. By accepting below, I approve and consent to:

- The U.S. Department of Education to disclose my Social Security number, last name, and date of birth to the U.S. Department of the Treasury in order to obtain my FTI only for the purpose of determining the eligibility for, and the amount of federal student aid for myself or others for which I participated and shared my FTI by a program authorized under subpart 1 of Part A, Part C, or Part D of Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended.
- The use of my FTI by the U.S. Department of Education officials and contractors (as defined in 24 C.F.R. 680.15(b)), only for the purpose of determining the eligibility for, and amount of federal student aid for myself or others for which I participated and shared my FTI by a program authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended.

- The U.S. Department of Education to redisclose the FTI received from the U.S. Department of the Treasury pursuant to 24 C.F.R. 680.15(b)(2), which includes:
  - Institutions of higher education participating in the federal student aid programs authorized under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended;
  - State higher education agencies;
  - Scholarships organizations designated prior to Dec. 16, 2019, by the Secretary of Education.
- The use of my FTI for the application, award, and administration of student aid awarded by the federal government, institutions of higher education, state higher education agencies, and designated scholarship organizations.
- The redisclosure of my FTI to any future 2014–15 FAFSA® Forms for which I elect to participate (e.g., if I elect to participate in my child’s FAFSA® Form or to complete my own FAFSA® Form after participating in another FAFSA® Form). My FTI will be redisclosed to these additional applications upon my affirmative participation. I understand that I may decline an invitation to participate, which will prevent the transfer of my FTI to that FAFSA® Form.

By approving and consenting, I further understand:

- My approval and consent are a condition of my eligibility or of others for which I have participated and shared my FTI for federal student aid, even if I did not file a U.S. Federal tax return.
- FTI received from the U.S. Department of the Treasury will supersede any manually entered financial or income information on the FAFSA® Form.

- The U.S. Department of Education may request updated tax information from the U.S. Department of the Treasury once consent is provided. If FTI has changed (e.g., amended tax return filed with revised FTI), then eligibility for and amounts of federal, state, and institutional financial aid may change.

If I do not approve and consent to the disclosure of my FTI, the U.S. Department of Education will be unable to calculate my eligibility for federal student aid or the eligibility of others who have requested that I share my FTI on their FAFSA® Form.

I am permitted to revoke my approval and consent for the disclosure and use of my FTI as outlined below, as a Student Aid applicant. However, by revoking such approval and consent, neither I nor other applicants for which I participated and shared my FTI will be eligible for future federal student aid and/or other financial aid programs that used FTI to make determinations for eligibility of aid awarded by an institution of higher education, state higher education agency, or other designated scholarship organization.

Summary
This page confirms that you understand the terms and conditions of the FAFSA® form and filled out the form accurately to the best of your ability.

The FAFSA® form is a legal document; you will electronically sign with your account username and password (FSA ID). Because your FSA ID is associated with your personal information, do not share it with anyone.

By signing the student’s application electronically using your account username and password, YOU, THE PARENT, certify that all of the information you provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked, to provide

- information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form, and
- U.S. or foreign income tax forms that you filed or are required to file.

You also certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on your application.

If you sign this application or any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a username and password, and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by the username and password, and/or any other credential and have not disclosed that username and password, and/or any other credential to anyone else. If you purposefully give false or misleading information, including applying as an independent student without meeting the unusual circumstances required to qualify for such a status, you may be subject to criminal penalties under 20 U.S.C. 1097, which may include a fine up to $20,000, imprisonment, or both.

Sign for yourself and submit the application for Raya Tran (Student).

☑️ I, Alcina Tran, agree to the terms outlined above.

What Happens Next

- Email sent
  Confirm that the student received an email version of this page.

- The Student Will Receive Notification of Processing
  In one to three days, the student will receive a notification by email that their FAFSA form was processed and sent to the student's schools.

- The Student Will Receive School Communications
  We use the information collected on the student's FAFSA form to calculate their Student Aid Index (SAI). The SAI lets schools determine how much aid the student is eligible to receive. Schools will reach out to the student if they need more information. They will also contact the student with financial aid offers. Once received, the student can contact their financial aid offices directly to ask questions about their student aid packages.

Track and Manage the Student's FAFSA® Form

You can check the status of the student's application in the "My Activity" section of your StudentAid.gov account. We will let you know if we need anything more from you.
